Quantitative criteria would be calculated based on audited consolidated financial statements and would mean the omission of an event/ information whose value involved or the expected impact in terms of value, exceeds the lower of the following:

- (a) 2% (two per cent) of consolidated turnover, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the Company; or
- (b) 2% (two per cent) of consolidated net worth as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the Company (except in case the arithmetic value of the net worth is negative); or
- (c) 5% (five percent) of average of absolute value of consolidated profit or loss after tax for last 3 years, as per the last 3 (three) audited consolidated financial statements of the Company.

In terms of the SEBI Disclosure Circular, if the average of absolute value of profit or loss is required to be considered by disregarding the 'sign' (positive or negative) that denotes such value as the said value / figure is required only for determining the threshold for 'materiality' of the event and not for any commercial consideration.

The details to be provided to the Stock Exchanges while disclosing Para B Events shall be in compliance with the requirements of the SEBI Disclosure Circular.

For the avoidance of doubt, it is clarified that if the objective materiality threshold is not met, an event or information may be treated as being material if in the opinion of the Board of the Company, the event or information is considered material.

Qualitative criteria would mean an event/ information:

- (a) the omission of an event or information, which is likely to result in discontinuity or alteration of event or information already available publicly; or
- (b) the omission of an event or information is likely to result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date; or
- (c) any other event/information may be treated as being material if in the opinion of the Board of directors of Company, the event / information is considered material

5. Procedural Guidelines for determination of materiality of events/ information

In order to ensure that the Company complies with the disclosure obligations under Regulations 30 of the Listing Regulations, the Board has established an internal system for reporting any event / information which may require disclosure so that the event / information can be properly assessed and decision can be made regarding its disclosure to the Stock Exchanges.

Under the system, Chief Executive Officer, President, Vice President, Head of the Departments who are responsible for relevant areas of the Company's operations (Responsible Officers) must report to the Managing Director and the Director and Group Head (Corporate Finance) of the Company any event / information which may possibly be material or of which the Responsible Officer is unsure as to its materiality. The event / information should be reported immediately after a Responsible Officer becomes aware of it.

On receipt of communication of potential material event / information, the Company Secretary will

- i. Review event / information and to take whatever steps necessary to verify its accuracy;
- ii. Assess whether the event / information is required to be disclosed to the Stock Exchanges under the Listing Regulations;
- iii. Report the matter to the Managing Director or Director and Group Head (Corporate Finance) that event / information is material and requires disclosure under Regulation 30 of the Listing Regulations.

Where the Managing Director, Director and Group Head (Corporate Finance) or Company Secretary is not certain about materiality of event / information, they may refer matter for external legal advice.

The procedure to be followed in relation to the lodgement of announcement of material event / information is as follows:

- i. Prepare draft announcement to the Stock Exchanges: If the event / information is material, the Company Secretary will prepare draft announcement to the Stock Exchanges which is factual and expressed in clear manner and obtain approval of the Managing Director or Director and Group Head (Corporate Finance).
- ii. Lodge Announcements: The Company Secretary on behalf of the Company will lodge or arrange for lodgement of the announcement with the Stock Exchanges.
- iii. Post announcement on website: After lodgement of the announcement with the Stock Exchanges, the Company Secretary will arrange to place it on the website of the Company. All the announcements made under this Policy shall be kept on the website as per the Archival Policy of the Company.
